Dear BEAUTY & THE BEAST,

I would just like to say you guys are doing a great job with the new BEAUTY & THE BEAST comic books! Applause, applause! Beauty & the Beast is such a great story. I have a question I have wanted to ask for a while, but didn't know who to pose it to. Has Disney ever considered doing an animated movie on the story of Phantom of the Opera? I think it would be very interesting to see what they could do with it.

Christine Johnson, age 17
Escondido, CA

Thanks for the cheers, Christine! As far as Phantom of the Opera is concerned, Disney probably considers everything! So one can never be sure what's on Disney's future agenda!

Dear B&B,

Beauty & the Beast is my favorite movie, and the comic is superb! Your comics have become an inspiration to me because someday I would like to be an artist at Disney. I am going to subscribe to BEAUTY & THE BEAST, ALADDIN, and THE LITTLE MERMAID. I can't wait to receive them in the mail. I haven't seen THE LION KING comic anywhere yet, but I am watching for it! I am looking forward to reading it!

Brooke Tafolla, age 15
Ft. Lewis, WA

Superb comics and an inspiration all in one! We're flattered, Brooke! We are always thrilled to know we're helping budding artists. To get all of our Disney titles delivered right to your doorstep, Brooke, simply fill out the subscription form in the back of this very issue and mail it in! Check with a parent or adult first. THE LION KING adaptation comic book was released over the summer, so check with your local comic shop or newsstand. And be sure to watch for TLK monthly series coming soon!

Dear BEAUTY & THE BEAST,

I thought that BEAUTY & THE BEAST #1 and #2 were wonderful! The art work was beautiful and the stories were original and very funny. I loved them, thanks! By the way, was it just me or did Belle's dress on the cover of issue #2 look like the dress she wore from the Broadway version?

Susan Hogan, age 19
Tampa, FL

You're welcome, Susan! Our talented artists have come together to create something that wasn't there before, with every issue of B&B! And very clever of you to notice that Belle's dress is a re-creation from the Broadway musical design!

Dear Beautiful & Beastly Mail,

I just bought B&B #1 and I am genuinely delighted with this series start. However, I have a few comments. First off, I feel that the story line revolves too much around the enchanted objects and not nearly enough around Beast and Belle. The objects are fun but I think Beast and Belle's relationship should be the key focus of this comic. I loved the subplot with Gaston, LeFou and the irrepressible Bimbettes! I also loved the Hairbrush character. The comic series is off to a great start. Keep up the great work!

Emily Harrison
Glen Carbon, IL

We're happy you like BEAUTY & THE BEAST, Emily! As you read the following issues, you will see that Beast and Belle's relationship is blossoming exquisitely! After all, affairs of the heart take time! We like to give our fans a little taste of what's to come in small doses — this way they enjoy each new issue more and more!

Dear Beautiful and Beastly Mail,

I hate it when you put a dress on the cover, like the one on B&B #2, but don't use it in the story!

Samantha Zatarain, age 7
Portland, CT

We hate that too, Samantha! Unfortunately, the art inside the comic is printed smaller than the cover art and tends to lose all the beautiful detail. Therefore, we may simplify the interior pages so the book will look perfect inside and out!

Dear B&B Mail,

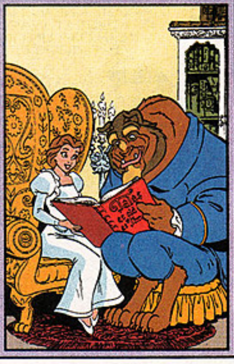
I am the ultimate Beauty & the Beast fan! When I saw the BEAUTY & THE BEAST comic book in the store I couldn't believe it! I love Disney and hope to one day become an animator. There is one thing I am wondering about. They have Aladdin and The Little Mermaid TV series; what do they have that B&B doesn't? I am so glad Marvel is doing this series. There isn't much Beauty & the Beast stuff out there for us older kids, and the comic is perfect for me!

Erica Postek, age 16
Erie, PA

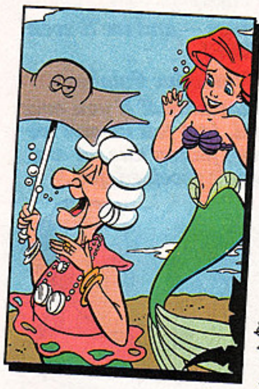
And we thought we here at Marvel were the ultimate B&B fans, Erica! Disney hasn't produced a Beauty & the Beast TV series — not because the premise isn't any less fantastic than The Little Mermaid or Aladdin — but because they feel the finite time line of the story would not sustain an ongoing TV series. Animated television is a very costly undertaking with many limitations. Producing comics is a fraction of a television budget and less restricting. Disney asked the pros at Marvel Comics to take on the challenge of a B&B comic — and you are the happy beneficiary of the wildly successful results!

NEXT MONTH:

"Lyrical Love, Part 2" - When Lumiere creates a poem for Belle expressing Beast's feelings for her — she is flattered but knows it doesn't sound like Beast's own words! If only Belle could get Beast to practice his reading and writing, perhaps he could write his own verses of love for her. Meanwhile, Chip finds adventure in a secret hiding place!

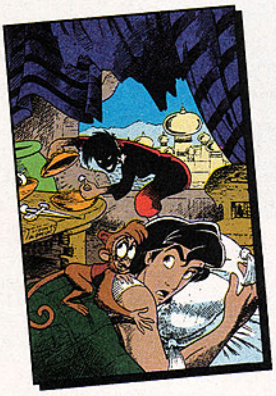


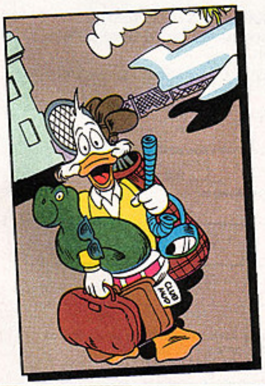
ALSO THIS MONTH . . .



THE LITTLE MERMAID #5, "My Dinner With Crustacea" - When Ariel agrees to take her wacky Aunt Crustacea on a tour of Atlantica, she, Flounder and Sebastian get more than they bargained for! Things run amuck at Sharky's Tea Parlor, and Ariel and company must find a way to escape da' dastardly doings of the Lobster Mobster!

ALADDIN #4, "Greedy in Agrabah" - No one knows the street life of Agrabah better than Aladdin. When he meets up with a young thief named Oso, Aladdin must find a way to show him that being a thief is no way to live. Will Oso learn to trust Aladdin or will he end up as a member of the Thieves Guild?!





DISNEY AFTERNOON #3 - After digging up treasure in their backyard, Goof Troop's P.J. and Max hope to make it rich! Don't miss the other outrageous adventures starring Duck Tales, TaleSpin, Rescue Rangers, and, of course, mysterious Darkwing Duck!
